Dear Marguerite,

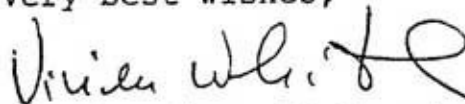

This is to tell you how impressed I was by your recent dramatic reading at the Rich Forum of your "Red, Black and Moonlight".

I have followed your career for a few years now, and I believe you have matured into a very fine writer. This has been confirmed by your receiving one of only two playwright fellowships this year from the CT Commission on the Arts.

It was hard to single out a line in your work that wasn't poetry. It would stand alone as a written work, but the production - the sets, the music played by expert musicians, and your own performance - added up to a beautifully coordinate theater piece.

I really look forward to your next production(s).

Very best wishes,

Board member, CT Commission on the Arts
